Arena key rules

The bearer of the given key must abide by the following rules that the committee of Inglewood Pony Club have put in place.

Personal use only:

The key holder (the person who signed Arena Key Hire form) is the only given person to use the key. This key is not to be handed out to friends and extended family.

You may bring a friend to ride with you but they must pay the $10/horse casual fee-payable to Ag & Marine in Inglewood (Opposite the fire station) or via Online banking (please ask for a current bank account via our Facebook page-Inglewood Pony Club NZ).

Lessons:

Please visit our website www.inglewoodponyclub.co.nz to see when there are lessons being held to avoid turning up at the same time.

If you are wanting to have exclusive use of the arena for a lesson, please make sure you book the arena. This can be done via our website -please see the 'Arena hire' section.

Clinics and Rallies:

Clinics and rallies take priority of the arena. We have the right to change dates at any given time. The bearer of the key is responsible for keeping track of these date changes to avoid clashes with their personal use.

Fees:

The key does NOT take away the arena fee/ground fee for clinics, shows or such events held at Inglewood Pony Club unless you are a full IPC member.

Respect:

Please respect our grounds as if they were your own.

Poo must be picked up from the arena and the car park and placed in the bins provided or the surrounding trees.

Please report any damage.

Respect other arena users.

Follow all the rules on the main entrance gate.

Risk:

Inglewood Pony Club are not responsible for injuries or death. You enter our grounds at your own risk.

Arena:

The key only entitles the bearer to ride in the arena. The Cross-country paddock is not to be used.

Validation:

This key is valid from the 1st August 2023 -31st July 2024.

Failure to abide by any of these rules will result in the removal of your key.
